8. Change of Control Prior to Commencement Date

Where the Company has, after the date of this Agreement but prior to the Commencement Date, entered into a contract or arrangement under which its business (or part of it) is to be undertaken by another person or entity, or where the Company's business (or part of it) is to be sold or transferred to another person or entity and your employment does not proceed, as contemplated in this Agreement, you will be paid an amount equivalent to 24 months' base salary set out in Schedule One.

9. Termination of Employment

- (a) Either party may terminate this Agreement by giving six months' notice in writing.
- (b) The Company may, in its sole discretion, pay you in lieu of all or part of the notice period (where notice is given by either party). Should the Company elect to pay you in lieu of notice, you shall be entitled to receive your base salary and the Board may in its sole discretion, but acting reasonably, pay you pro rata a Short Term Incentive payment (STI) in respect of the notice period taking into account your progress towards achievement of the STI financial and non-financial objectives agreed for the year in question. Any Long Term Incentive Plan (LTI) rights will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the SKYCITY Executive Long Term Incentive plan.
- (c) The Company may, in its sole discretion, require you to undertake reduced or alternative duties consistent with your abilities or require that you do not attend the workplace during the notice period. In that event, you will continue to receive your full remuneration, remain an employee of the Company, and will continue to be bound by your duties of confidentiality and fidelity for the rest of the notice period.
- (d) Nothing in the above clauses will prevent your dismissal without notice in the case of serious misconduct, serious breach (including substantial non-performance), or other cause justifying summary dismissal. Should this occur, you will receive no entitlements other than base remuneration then due, any accrued holiday pay, any accrued or vested STI which has been awarded but not yet been paid to you. Any LTI rights will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the SKYCITY Executive Long Term Incentive plan.
- (e) The Company may elect to have you removed from the work site immediately upon termination if circumstances warrant.
- (f) All remuneration and any other payments due to you upon termination of this Agreement shall be made by SKYCITY Management Limited as employing company, or a related New Zealand company.

10. No Fault Termination

- (a) Given the seniority of your role and the need for there to be a high level of compatibility and trust between the parties, it is anticipated that there may be circumstances where the Board forms the view that substantial incompatibility and/or irreconcilable differences have developed with you, or the Board may otherwise wish to terminate your employment when you are not at fault (including a redundancy situation or medical incapacity). In the event that this occurs, both parties agree in advance that the Company is entitled to terminate your employment immediately and you will be paid an amount equivalent to 12 months' base salary, PROVIDED that if the Company gives you notice of termination of employment:
  - (i) where the Company has entered into a contract or arrangement under which its business (or part of it) is to be undertaken by another person or entity, or where the Company's business (or part of it) is to be sold or transferred to another person or entity, and your employment does not continue as contemplated in this Agreement; or
  - (ii) within the first year from the Commencement Date, then the Company is entitled to terminate your employment immediately and you will be paid an amount equivalent to 24 months' base salary. You will not be entitled to any additional payment in lieu of notice.

- (b) Both parties agree in advance that each sum referred to in subclause 10(a) above represents a fair and reasonable payment to compensate you for loss of employment in the specified circumstances (including the manner of the termination) and that you will have no further claim against the Company or any of its representatives in any way relating to or arising from the termination of your employment.
- (c) Where termination of your employment occurs under this clause, any LTI rights will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the SKYCITY Executive Long Term Incentive plan. The Board may in its sole discretion, but acting reasonably, pay you a pro-rata STI payment for the then current financial year taking into account your progress towards achievement of the financial and non-financial STI objectives agreed for the year in question and any other relevant circumstances. In addition, the sign-on shares referred to in Schedule One may be issued to you in the circumstances contemplated in Schedule One.

11. Resignation from Related Positions

When your employment with the Company ends for any reason whatsoever, you agree that with immediate effect you will resign from any position you hold as a director, officer or trustee within the SKYCITY Entertainment Group and/or any other business organisation connected to or involving the Company.

12. Employee Protection Process

- (a) This clause applies to a restructuring (as defined in Section 690I of the New Zealand Employment Relations Act 2000) which occurs from the Commencement Date and therefore will apply where the Company has entered into a contract or arrangement under which its business (or part of it) is to be undertaken by another person or entity, or where the Company's business (or part of it) is to be sold or transferred to another person or entity.
- (b) In the event of such a restructuring affecting your position, the Company will, as soon as is reasonably practicable, taking into account the commercial and confidentiality requirements of the business, commence negotiations with the other party involved in the restructuring (Other Party) concerning the impact of the restructuring on you and will advise you of the proposed timeframes, discussions and relevant outcomes.
- (c) The general process the Company will follow in such negotiations with the Other Party, to the extent that it relates to affected employees, will include:
  - (i) advising you of intended timeframes for relevant meetings (if any) in the restructuring process;
  - (ii) letting you know what will generally be discussed in any such meetings; and
  - (iii) reporting back on outcomes of any such meetings with the Other Party to the extent that they relate to you.
- (d) In negotiations with the Other Party, the Company will, subject to any statutory, commercial confidence or privacy issues, provide the Other Party with all information about the employees who will be affected by the restructuring (including you), including all details of their terms and conditions of employment, and it will encourage the Other Party to offer all affected employees, employment on the same or generally no less favourable terms and conditions of employment than they currently enjoy with the Company.

- (e) Whether the Other Party offers you ongoing employment and on what terms and conditions, will ultimately be the decision of that Other Party.
- (f) If you are not offered employment with the Other Party, the Company will meet with you to discuss:
  - (i) whether there are any options available for you to remain in employment with the Company; and/or
  - (ii) your entitlements under this Agreement and what this could mean for you, including notice arrangements.
- (g) In the event that the Other Party does offer you employment on terms and conditions which:
  - (i) are at least equal to the quantum of your existing remuneration (including STI, LTI and the other benefits prescribed in Schedule One);
  - (ii) maintain the termination of employment provisions contained in this Agreement to the extent that such provisions remain applicable at the time such offer is made;
  - (iii) are (other than the terms and conditions referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above) no less favourable, on an aggregate basis, than your existing terms and conditions; and
  - (iv) would not result in a substantial diminution of your role, status and responsibility, then you will not be entitled to notice or any redundancy compensation from the Company, whether or not you accept that offer. However:

- (v) if you are not offered employment; or
- (vi) if you are offered employment that does not satisfy each of the requirements above in subclauses (g)(i)-(iv) and you decline such offer, then you shall be entitled to the same entitlements as if the Company had terminated your employment in accordance with clause 10.

13. Suspension

If the Company considers it necessary, it may require you to undertake reduced or alternative duties consistent with your abilities or remain away from work, on pay. If any suspension extends beyond one month due to matters beyond the Company's control (such as a police investigation into your conduct) the suspension may continue without pay.

14. Medical Examination

- (a) The Company may, at its expense, require you to undergo a medical examination by a registered medical practitioner or practitioners nominated by the Company (after the Company has considered your wishes in respect of the appointment of the registered medical practitioner). A copy of any relevant report provided by that medical practitioner will be available to both parties.

- (b) The Company may exercise this right for the purposes of:
  - (i) determining whether granting you ongoing sick leave is appropriate;
  - (ii) determining whether your employment should be terminated for incapacity;
  - (iii) assessing your fitness for work and/or return to work after a period of sick leave;
  - (iv) obtaining a second opinion where you have provided the Company with a medical certificate or report; and/or
  - (v) assessing your health for insurance purposes.

15. Conflict of Interest

- (a) You will be expected to devote your full time energies to this position and for this reason, together with a need to protect the Company's commercial interests, you will not be permitted to engage in any other business or outside activities, such as directorships without the Board's prior written consent.
- (b) You will not enter into any contracts, business interests and/or outside activities which may conflict in any way with the Company's interests and your responsibilities to it, or reflect adversely on the Company's business or its public perception.
- (c) Notwithstanding the above, you may hold shares in companies listed on any recognised stock exchange without the Company's prior written consent if less than 5% of the issued shares of any class of any one company are held, and provided that such company does not materially compete with the core business of the Company or any associated or related entities.
- (d) You will immediately advise the Company if an immediate family member, partner, friend or close business associate is or becomes employed by the Company or any of its related entities or by a competitor or potential competitor of the Company.
- (e) You must not receive any payment, fee, gratuity, commission or other benefit (i.e. incentive or gift) other than from the Company in payment for any matter or thing connected with your duties, except if consistent with Company policy and with the Company's prior written consent.

16. Restraint of Trade

- (a) In consideration of the remuneration provided in this Agreement, you agree that when your employment terminates, for any reason, you will be bound by the following restraints for 12 months after the termination of your employment. The restraints are that you will not:

  - (iii) attempt to encourage or persuade any of the Company's directors, key employees, contractors, or consultants with whom you have had dealings, to terminate their contracts or agreements with the Company or any associated or related entity. For the purpose of this subclause, "key employee" will mean an employee earning over NZ$100,000 gross per annum.
- (b) You acknowledge that your position with the Company gives you access to and the benefit of confidential and strategic information and business relationships vital to the Company's continuing success and you therefore acknowledge and agree that the provisions of this clause are reasonable and necessary in their application to protect the genuine proprietary interests of the Company.
- (c) You acknowledge that the remuneration you receive includes consideration for accepting these restraint of trade terms.
- (d) In the event any portion of this clause is viewed as unenforceable by any Authority or Court with jurisdiction to consider such clauses, the clause will apply as modified by the Authority or the Court, or in the event it is not modified by the Authority or Court, the remainder of this clause and Agreement will continue to be enforceable by the parties, provided however that the parties may negotiate a valid and enforceable provision in replacement of the invalid provision.
- (e) The provisions of this clause are for the benefit of SKYCITY Entertainment Group Limited itself and as trustee for each other Related Company and may be enforced by any of those persons in accordance with the provisions of the New Zealand Contracts (Privity) Act 1982.
- (f) Within this Agreement, the term "Related Company" shall be given the meaning prescribed to it by section 2(3) of the New Zealand Companies Act 1993.

You will not use (or attempt to use) or disclose to any person, firm, corporation or entity, except in the normal course of employment, any confidential or trade information acquired through the Company or any associated or related entity including, but not limited to, computer programmes, software, forms and documents, training manuals and techniques, products, services, the identities of the current, past and prospective clients and customers, prices charged by or to the Company or any associated or related entity, marketing and sales plans, financial information and any other information in intellectual property both during the term of this Agreement and after its termination. Dear Graeme

AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT - FY18 SHORT-TERM INCENTIVE BONUS

I refer to your employment agreement dated 4 November 2016 ("Employment Agreement").

As you are aware, the Board of SKYCITY Entertainment Group Limited ("Company") has recently established a Restricted Share Rights Plan ("Plan") for the financial year ending 30 June 2018 and invited selected employees of the Company to participate in the Plan. The Plan allows the Board to make an offer of restricted share rights ("Restricted Share Rights"), as a performance incentive, to selected employees of the Company.

You have agreed with the Board that your short-term incentive bonus ("STI") for the financial year ending 30 June 2018 (if any) will be aligned with SKYCITY executives and be payable to you in the form of Restricted Share Rights. In this regard, your STI will be calculated as per your existing STI arrangements (with a target incentive payment of 70% of base salary) and then converted into the applicable number of Restricted Share Rights in accordance with the terms and conditions outlined in the Plan offer documents provided to other employees of the Company.

The Restricted Share Rights (if any) will be issued to you on the terms and conditions outlined in the Plan offer documents provided to other employees of the Company.

The above STI arrangements will apply for the financial year ending 30 June 2018 in place of the STI arrangements set out in Schedule One (Remuneration) of your Employment Agreement. For any subsequent financial year, your STI arrangements will be as per Schedule One (Remuneration) of your Employment Agreement or such other arrangements as determined by the Board.

Except as varied by this letter, in all other respects the terms and conditions specified in your Employment Agreement remain unchanged and continue in full force and effect.

I would be grateful if you could countersign a copy of this letter and return it to me to confirm your acceptance of these arrangements.

Yours sincerely

SKYCITY Entertainment Group Limited

Brent Harman

Chairman, Remuneration & Human Resources Committee

I, Graeme Stephens, confirm that I have read the terms and conditions of employment regarding my STI for the year ending 30 June 2018 as set out in this letter and accept this variation to my Employment Agreement. I confirm that, by signing this letter, I agree to be bound by this variation. I acknowledge that I have been advised that I may seek independent legal advice about the terms and conditions of this offer and I have been given a reasonable opportunity to do so.
